

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Feb. 14, 2022

Doug Snyder CPA confirmed to CHE Board of Commissioners

Columbia, SC—The South Carolina Commission on Higher Education (CHE) announced today that Doug Snyder CPA was confirmed Feb. 10 by the South Carolina Senate to serve on the CHE Board of Commissioners.

Commissioner Snyder graduated from The Citadel in 1982 and holds a B.S. in Business Administration. In 2019, he received an honorary degree of Doctor of Civic Engagement from The Citadel.

Through his professional experiences, Snyder has worked with complex organizations and management structures advocating teamwork and financial leadership as building blocks for successful organizations. Snyder has served as an audit manager in an international accounting firm, a chief financial officer in a South Carolina state-wide nonprofit organization, and business advisor to many small businesses, nonprofits and individuals across South Carolina.

Snyder's higher education involvement includes serving twenty-seven years on The Citadel Board of Visitors, during which he served in numerous positions, including four years as Chair of the Board. He currently serves as a member emeritus. He has also been a long-term active member of the Association of Governing Boards of Universities and Colleges.

"We welcome Commissioner Snyder to the CHE Board of Commissioners and look forward to the perspective he will contribute based on his leadership experience and his broad technical background," said CHE Chair Wes Hayes. "His deep experience as a board of visitors chair at The Citadel, his inspiring entrepreneurship, and his passion for community involvement will allow him to contribute greatly to the advancement of higher education in South Carolina."

Dr. Rusty Monhollon, CHE's president and executive director, said, "We look forward to leveraging Commissioner Snyder's wide range of experience and strategic leadership across higher education and multiple professional sectors as he joins the CHE. His insights will help us advocate for higher education initiatives that are relevant to our state and our workforce."

Snyder has a wide variety of experience on other community and professional boards:

- South Carolina Assoc. of CPAs Board of Directors, Current Member
- American Institute of CPAs, Designated National CPA Ambassador
- Charleston CFO Council, Charter Member
- Truist Lowcountry Advisory Board, Current Member
- Harbour Club Board of Directors, Current Member
- S.C. Assoc. of Nonprofit Organizations, Former Treasurer
- Palmetto Goodwill Board of Directors, Former Member
- Porter-Gaud School, Board of Directors, Former Treasurer
- Leadership South Carolina, Class of 2000

Snyder continues his business and community leadership by serving as the Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer of LS3P, a Southeastern architectural services firm operating from its nine offices in Charleston, Columbia, Greenville, Myrtle Beach, Charlotte, Raleigh, Wilmington, Atlanta, and Savannah.

Commissioner Doug Snyder CPA

ABOUT CHE:

The South Carolina Commission on Higher Education (CHE), established in 1967, serves as the central body that acts both as an oversight agency on behalf of the General Assembly and as an advocate for higher education, taxpayer interests and institutional policies, aspirations, and needs. The CHE is committed to accreditation, regulation, advocacy and oversight, as directed by the General Assembly.